

LATEST NEWS 23.01.08

The public exhibition of the architects' initial ideas, currently to be seen at LymeNet, will close on 31 January. The architects are now drawing up a provisional single working scheme in the light of public comments on, and the Town Council's formal response to, those initial ideas. Information on the likely time scale will be shown here in due course.