

Explanation of failing assertion 10 testing

Some areas of the testing were failed:

- Website accessibility has been tested but there no statement on the website. This has now been published.
- A full data audit had not been completed We are in the process of getting quotes for this work.
- There is a section on Privacy and Electronic Communications in the Information Policy, however a separate IT policy has not been produced. A separate IT policy is being produced.