Welcome to The Guildhall, Lyme Regis

The history of The Guildhall can be traced back as far as the Stuart period. The Main Chamber with its curved ceiling and coat of arms was once the local court. The main body of the building including the Mayor's Parlour was built in 1887 on the site of the town lock-up.

Lyme Regis is located at the heart of Dorset's Jurassic coastline. With stunning views across the sea towards Charmouth and West Bay, the Guildhall provides the perfect backdrop for any wedding photography.

If you are considering holding your ceremony in The Guildhall, you are welcome to view venue first. Please contact us to make arrangements.

We hope you choose to share your special day with us and we look forward to welcoming you to Lyme Regis.

"Beautiful setting for our special day. The Guildhall followed by our reception in two funky beach huts was the best wedding ever. The staff, people and the setting of Lyme made for the most romantic wonderful day. The sun was out too, couldn't have wished for more.
